

Marianne Steger, MS, CEBS

Director of Health Care

Ohio Public Employees Retirement System

Marianne Steger has more than 30 years of experience in health plan strategy and design, employee benefits, labor relations and public policy. She is currently the Director of Health Care for the Ohio Public Employees Retirement System. Prior to commencing her career at OPERS in 2011, she spent decades partnering with public employers on health care issues in her career with the American Federation of State County and Municipal Employees.

Marianne represents OPERS on the Public Sector Health Care Roundtable, an organization that works to improve health quality and cost for public pension systems and public employers.

She also serves nationally on the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Public Sector Committee and has served as chair and was a voting director of the IFEBP Board in the past.

Marianne was appointed by Governor Strickland to serve on the Ohio Health Care Coverage Reform Initiative Task Force. She was also appointed by Cincinnati Mayor Mark Mallory to serve on the Cincinnati Retirement System Pension and Health Care Task Force.

Marianne graduated as a Paul Robeson Scholar with a Bachelor of Arts in Labor Studies from Rutgers University and holds a Masters of Science in Labor Studies from the University of Massachusetts and is certified as a Certified Employee Benefits Specialist from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania and the IFEBP.
